Call for Special Session Proposals

The 35th edition of GLSVLSI will be held as an in-person conference. We would also like to invite proposals for special sessions in GLSVLSI 2025. Proposals that address any topics of interest to the GLSVLSI community, and take the form of any format (e.g., panels, hot-topic sessions, embedded tutorials, debates) are all welcome. Special sessions typically run for 1.5-2 hours. Each speaker at a special session has the opportunity to include a paper of up to 6 pages. All papers will be reviewed before being published in the official proceedings of the conference. Detailed paper submission instructions will be provided upon acceptance of the proposal.

Special Session Format

Special sessions can take the form of: (1) panels discussing visionary and/or controversial issues; (2) hot-topic sessions dealing with the introduction and discussion of emerging problems; or (3) embedded tutorials addressing recent technical trends that are of interest to the conference participants.

Proposal Submission Instructions

Please follow these guidelines while preparing the proposal:

- Prepare a single PDF not exceeding three pages and submit the file to the “special session track”
- Describe the session topic, format, and intended audience
- Include a list of speakers with their biographical sketch and presentation titles/abstracts

Please submit your special session proposal in the form of a single PDF file to the “special session track” on the EasyChair submission site. To be eligible for review, your proposal must be submitted by Feb 20, 2025. Notification of paper acceptance/rejection will be sent by Feb 30, 2025.

Please contact Tooraj Nikoubin and Anupam Chattopadhyay at their emails <Tooraj.Nikoubin@utdallas.edu> and <Anupam@ntu.edu.sg> if you have any questions or need additional information.

Important Dates

Proposal Submission Deadline: Feb 20, 2025
Notification of Acceptance/Rejection: Mar 2, 2025
Camera-Ready: Mar 10, 2025

By submitting your article to an ACM Publication, you hereby acknowledge that you and your co-authors are subject to all ACM Publications Policies, including ACM's new Publications Policy on Research Involving Human Participants and Subjects. Alleged violations of this policy or any ACM Publications Policy will be investigated by ACM and may result in a full retraction of your paper, in addition to other potential penalties, as per ACM Publications Policy.

Please ensure that you and your co-authors obtain an ORCID ID, so you can complete the publishing process for your accepted paper. ACM has been involved in ORCID from the start, and we have recently made a commitment to collect ORCID IDs from all our published authors. The collection process has started and will roll out as a requirement throughout 2022. We are committed to improving author discoverability, ensuring proper attribution and contribute to ongoing community efforts around name normalization; your ORCID ID will help in these efforts.
